

PART III APPLICATION FOR FEE RELIEF FROM COURSE FEES

The Actuaries Institute offers financial relief from Part III subjects for its student members, providing they meet the three criteria listed below. Students pay 50% of the scheduled course fee for any Part III subject. Students must pay the full price for any other associated material (postage, books, accommodation etc). From 2006 onwards students can only obtain fee relief for the same Part III subject a maximum of two times (including subjects from which they later withdraw from). From 2009 onwards students cannot apply for fee relief for C1 Investments and C5A/5B Investment Management & Finance courses. C7A ERM course fee relief will only be accepted for the workshop and not for the ST9 exam.

Declaration by Applicant

I apply for financial relief from Part III at the relief rate of 50% of the Actuaries Institute Part III course fees, and attest to the fact that I satisfy all three criteria for financial relief below:

1. I am a current full-time resident of and working in a qualified country*
2. I am personally paying for the course fees and that I am not being reimbursed by an employer, or a company or other individual or entity.
3. My salary is paid in local currency.

* A complete list of qualified countries can be found on the Institute website at <http://www.actuaries.asn.au/EducationandProfessional/Education/Forms.aspx>.
