

Accredited Undergraduate and Postgraduate Courses

The following tables list the Australian universities that offer programs particularly relevant to the actuarial examinations; holders of these degrees may qualify for exemptions from some or all of the Part I subjects (CT1 - CT8).

Australian National University, Canberra
BAct.S
BAct.S/LLB (Actuarial Studies and Law)
BAct.S/BComm (Actuarial Studies and Commerce majoring in accounting)
BAct.S/BComm (Actuarial Studies and Commerce majoring in finance)
BAct.S/BComm (Actuarial Studies and Commerce majoring in business information systems)
BAct.S/BFin. (Actuarial studies and Finance)
BAct.S/BEc (Actuarial studies and Economics)
Grad. Cert. in actuarial studies
MActS (Masters in Actuarial Studies)
MActStat (Conversion Masters in Actuarial Studies)

Curtin University of Technology, Perth
BSc (Actuarial Science)
MSc (Actuarial and Financial Science)

Macquarie University, Sydney
BCom/BCom (Accounting and Actuarial Studies)
BCom including Actuarial studies
BCom/LLB (Actuarial studies and law)
BAppFin/BCom (Actuarial Studies and Applied Finance)
BCom/BEc (Actuarial Studies and Economics/Econometrics)
BCom/BSc (Actuarial Studies and Computing)
BCom/BSc (Actuarial Studies and Mathematics)
BCom/BSc (Actuarial Studies and Statistics)
Masters of Actuarial Practice

Institute of Actuaries of Australia

University of Melbourne, Melbourne

BCom or BCom (Hons) including Actuarial Studies
Grad. Diploma in Actuarial Studies
Combined Degrees with Actuarial Studies include
Commerce/Science
Commerce/Law
Commerce/Engineering
Commerce/Information Systems and Arts/Commerce

University of NSW, Sydney

BCom or BCom (Hons) including actuarial studies
BCom/BSc including Actuarial Studies
BCom/LLB including Actuarial Studies
BCom/BSocSc including Actuarial Studies
BCom/BA including Actuarial Studies
MCom in Actuarial Studies