

Young Actuaries Program

Developing an Actuarial Career in Asia

Presented by: John Newman, Melinda Howes and Sim Ng

Tuesday 9 April 2013

7.00pm - 9.00pm

KPMG

Room 1 & 2, 8th Floor, Prince's Building, 10 Chater Road
Central, Hong Kong

Hong Kong

For many young actuaries, it is important to hear from industry leaders. This session is an opportunity for you to meet and learn from three prominent actuaries.

John Newman and Melinda Howes will be discussing what the market is demanding of actuaries from a global perspective. Sim Ng will then examine specific challenges facing actuaries working in Asia.

Come along and hear about their experiences and the invaluable lessons they have learnt along the way.

John Newman

President, Actuaries Institute Australia and Managing Director of PFS

John is a director of PFS, an employee-owned financial services consulting company. His areas of particular expertise include superannuation, actuarial/financial modelling, governance, and risk management. John is also a founding director of Foresight which develops and markets stochastic financial models and tools.

Melinda Howes

CEO, Actuaries Institute Australia

Melinda is an actuary who has had a varied career in financial services spanning policy, consulting, product, sales and strategic work in superannuation, wealth management, insurance and not-for-profit entities. Melinda is a passionate believer that actuaries can add value in a broad range of businesses.

Sim Ng

Regional Director, Actuarial, Prudential Corporation Asia

Sim's experience has covered a diverse range of work and responsibilities, which have included CFO and Appointed Actuary roles, demutualisation projects, M&A projects and joint venture negotiations. In 2007, Sim was the president of the Actuarial Society of Hong Kong and she is currently the chairman of the Advisory Committee for the Insurance, Financial and Actuarial Analysis Program of the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Places are limited so registration is essential.

Register online or via email events@actuaries.asn.au

Find out more about Actuaries Institute events at www.actuaries.asn.au