

The Changing Face of GI

Tuesday 2 June 2015 • Sydney

Register Now

www.actuaries.asn.au/GI2015

In this increasingly changing, complex and competitive corporate environment, navigating your business can be challenging. The Australian general insurance industry is going through a period of rapid change, including strategic industry shifts, emerging new technologies and the growing importance of big data. This one day seminar will delve into what these changes mean for general insurance Actuaries, both in terms of evolving traditional roles as well as new strategic opportunities.

Program Topics

General Insurance Landscape and Outlook

Technological Change and its Impact on General Insurance

Data and Analytics: Bottom Up or Top Down?

The Changing Role of Actuaries

Presenters

Natasha Anning
Director, EY

Julie Batch
Chief Analytics Officer,
Insurance Australia
Group

Richard Brookes
Principal Actuary,
Taylor Fry

Professor Alex Collie
Chief Executive Officer,
Institute for Safety
Compensation and Recovery Research

John De Ravin
Appointed Actuary,
P&C, Swiss Re

Kevin Gomes
Principal Actuary,
Taylor Fry

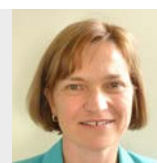

Mark Kimberley
Partner, HWL Ebsworth

Matt Kuperholz
Partner, Business
Analytics, PwC

James Lee
Senior Product Manager,
CCI & Sourced Products,
General Insurance, BT
Financial Group

Jenny Lyon
Director, SKL

Karl Marshall
Director, Quantum

Siddarth Parameswaran
Research Analyst
(Insurance), JP Morgan

Craig Price
Executive Manager,
Chief Data Office -
Advanced Analytics,
Suncorp

Jessica Truong
Project Manager, Road
Safety – Community
Relations, Transport
Accident Commission

Sponsored by

